Ascheri 2016 Barolo Coste & Bricco

Serralunga D'alba, Piedmont

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2022 - 2036

The 2016 Barolo Coste & Bricco is dark and ample in the glass. There is quite a bit of depth to the blue/purplish fruit. Lavender, spice, menthol, tar and licorice add brooding intensity. Muscular tannins add to the wine's heft, but there is enough fruit to balance things out nicely.

Antonio Galloni. Tasting date: October 2020
